

Workshop cum Extension lecture on Intellectual property rights

On 18th April 2024 a Workshop cum Extension lecture on Intellectual property rights was organized by college Career counseling, Entrepreneurship and Placement cell for faculty members. IPRs are the legal rights that protect the creations of the human mind, such as inventions, artistic works, designs, symbols, names, and images.

Mrs. Madhu Arora, Principal in her introductory address emphasized that being in teaching profession it is pertinent to know how we can protect our original work, receive proper recognition and attribution and also along generating economic rewards how to incentivize innovation. The resource person Dr. Machiavelli Singh, Associate Professor, Microbial Biotechnology, Amity University Gurgaon in his deliberation provided detailed information about IPR. Detailed discussion on all IPR forms, such as patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets, and industrial designs were aptly supplemented with relevant real life cases. Dr. Singh asserted that knowledge of IPRs is important for education because they can encourage innovation and creativity in teaching and learning. Also IPRs can reward educators and learners for their original and innovative contributions to the field of education. 54 faculty members participated in the work shop.
