Empowering Change through Volunteerism!

Today FCDHC had organised an orientation program at our college on Opportunities in Volunteerism with Not-for-Profit Organizations in our country. The session was aimed to sensitize students about the tremendous impact they can create by volunteering in the social sector. Students were introduced to the various opportunities available in non profit organizations, and how they can channel their skills, time, and passion toward causes that truly benefit society. From community service to sustainable development, the session emphasized how volunteerism not only uplifts communities but also enriches the lives of volunteers, promoting personal growth, leadership, and invaluable real-world experience. At this occasion Madam Principal motivated students towards contribution for social service. She said that it's a wonderful job to make yourselves conscious citizens ready to serve society with out thinking of personal benefits. At this orientation program Dr.Anjana,Dr. Harish and Dr Monika were present.

Five volunteers deputed by our College, Sector 9—Glory Upadhaya, Santanu Soni, Tanisha, Suraj Sharma, and Santosh Kumar Mehta—participated in the Anemia

Screening Program held at Xion International School on September 21, 2024 by Foundation For Community Development and Health Care in India. 114 women were screened for Anemia. Their involvement in this important health initiative underscores their commitment to raising awareness about Anemia and supporting early detection efforts. These volunteers contributed by assisting with screenings, coordinating participants, and helping with the smooth execution of the program, demonstrating both their leadership and dedication to community health.
